

The Recusal Statement

The recusal statement is a question to ask members of the Selection Committee in private prior to starting the interview session. The question is,

“Does anyone from the Selection Committee need to excuse themselves from any interviews because of a possible conflict of interest, lack of impartiality, professionally employed by or under contract with, owns or has vested interest in the firms or consultants being interviewed?”